Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The allure of precious freedom and opportunity brought pioneering settlers to the northern edge of South Dakota in Corson County; and,

Whereas, The city of McIntosh is the county seat of Corson County and can boast of a proud heritage of honest, hardworking, friendly citizens, and neighbors; and,

Whereas, The citizens of McIntosh have developed and maintained values through faith, education, and pride in their community; and,

Whereas, The community of McIntosh has demonstrated a strong community spirit in supporting local programs, sports, and other school events and are proud of their local businesses; the community responds well to the needs of others, making it the right place to call home:

Whereas, A variety of activities are planned on July 18, 19, and 20, 2008, for the people of McIntosh to celebrate the history of their community as it spans the past 100 years; and,

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 18 - 20, 2008, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
